PRAYERS

Special Prayer for Trinity Sunday: Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for Wau, South Sudan

Thank you Lord for the Poole-Wau Partnership and our friends in Wau and South Sudan. We pray for their safety and give thanks for their steadfast faith. We pray for the extension to St John's College in Wau to be completed and more students admitted for theology, teacher training and business studies. May all education facilities prosper. We pray for Archbishop Moses in all his preaching and teaching and that he may be able to visit Poole in August. Dear Lord, may the Peace vigil in early July in Juba bring your spirit and peace to the country. Instil strength into those leading the prayers: the Pope, Archbishop Justin Welby and leader of the church of Scotland Dr Iain Greenshields. May this vigil be spirit led and effective. We pray also for those still displaced from their homes, for those hungry, sick or grieving. We pray for the children, especially the orphans. May your comfort be known by all those in need. Lord, in your mercy, hear these prayers. Amen. 'So the churches were strengthened in the faith and grew daily in numbers.' Acts 16:5

Please pray for Laura Berry and her family - Laura is now in Forest Holme Hospice. Please pray for the families of Elsa Scheller and Paul Yeandle, and also pray for Mary Wartnaby and Jo Haslam-Jones.

CALL TO PRAY FROM BISHOP KAREN

Dear Friends,

This will be my last Ad Clerum as Acting Bishop of Salisbury and an appropriate one to send on the day we remember Columba, Abbot of Iona, reminding us of our vocational journeys and the unexpected challenges and opportunities life holds. Your support and encouragement, particularly over the last year as I have juggled two roles, has been much sustaining and appreciated. Thank you for it. I am now looking forward to wearing just one hat/mitre again and welcoming Bishop Stephen as our new Diocesan Bishop and colleague in the next few weeks.

As part of Bishop Stephen's welcome, I would like to invite all of us across the diocese to join with me in prayer. The Novena (found at the back of your church), beginning of Saturday and ending on the day of Bishop Stephen's inaugural service, draws us personally into prayer, reflecting on those characteristics we as a diocese asked for in a new diocesan Bishop. Uniting in prayer at this juncture of our life together will, I believe, create a new openness to God in our hearts and homes, in our schools and churches. As we move on from Pentecost into Ordinary time, we place ourselves afresh at God's disposal, trusting God for the future as we, together with Bishop Stephen, discern a new vision which honours the possibilities and realises the challenges of being the Church in the 21st century.

Bishop Karen
